Weekend Together

Saturday 4th - Sunday 5th July 2026

“Now you are the body of Christ, and each one of you is a part of it.” | 1 Cor 12:27

A Weekend for everyone!

We're excited to invite you to our Weekend Together! This is a chance to enjoy a full weekend of fellowship, worship, and Bible teaching as one church - St Paul's Warwick Road and Bretch Hill.

Whether you're new to St Paul's or have been coming years, we would love you to come!

Key Information

- When? Sat. 4th - Sun. 5th July
- Where? St Paul's Warwick Road (some activities at other locations)
- Speaker: Rev. Julian Bidgood (vicar of St James, Barkham)

Suggested Contribution

- Adults and young people (15+): £30
- Children (5-14): £10
- Under 5s: Free
- Max per family: £75

If cost would make it difficult to attend, please speak to someone on the staff team or PCC.

We don't want anyone to miss out.

What about the children?

- A supervised creche will be available during all teaching sessions.
- Primary school children will have their own programme.
- Secondary school young people will join the adult sessions.

Sat 4th - Sun 5th July

What should I bring?

- A notebook and pen. We'll provide Bibles.
- Some money for the bookstall.
- A picnic and something to sit on in the park.
- Trainers, if you intend to be energetic in the park and perhaps a favourite game or two to play with others.

What's happening on Saturday afternoon/evening?

Weather permitting, we will head over to People's Park for a picnic lunch on Saturday afternoon. Please bring a packed lunch with you, something to sit on and trainers/games for after lunch.

Whatever you do in the afternoon, please come back to Warwick Road for our church family evening meal which is being catered for us by Wendy Dickins - great food and fellowship guaranteed!

What about Sunday morning church?

Both congregations will meet together at Warwick Road for our final Bible Focus Session, instead of a normal Sunday morning service. Lifts will be provided from the Sunshine Centre.
